DISCERNING & MINISTERING
Spiritual or Mental Issues

25 APRIL 2025 | 10 AM - 1 PM

Mental health remains a complex and often sensitive topic within the church, with differing perspectives on how it should be understood and addressed. At times, it can be challenging to discern between spiritual and mental health struggles.

- Can a Christian be possessed by an evil spirit?
- Can Christians experience mental illness—and why?
- Can healing come through prayer alone, or is medical support also needed?
- Does depression reflect spiritual weakness?

Through Scripture, case studies, and discussion, participants will gain biblical insight and practical tools for ministering with wisdom and compassion — bringing restoration to those who are struggling and pointing others to Christ.

PRE-RECORDED VIDEOS WILL BE DISSEMINATED TO REGISTERED PARTICIPANTS FOR VIEWING TO PREPARE FOR DISCUSSION ON 25 APRIL.

Koh Chin Kok is an elder of Church of Singapore who started serving in full-time pastoral ministry since 2007. He has a Master of Arts in Counselling from Singapore Bible College in 2012.

6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.
5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another.

Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

What Does God Want From Me?

Mark 12

38 As he taught, Jesus said, "Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, 39 and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. 40 They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely."

41 Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. 42 But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a few cents.

43 Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. 44 They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on."

Background of passage

- Mark 12:35 to Mark 13:37 takes place at the temple courts
- The temple was regarded as God's house
- Using the things and people that the disciples saw and heard in the temple, Jesus taught them about what truly matters in life

What can we learn from this?

1. The heart is the most important to God
 - Isaiah 29:13 The Lord says: "These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me."
2. The 'great' things are not so important after all
 - All things will pass away
 - Mark 13:1-2 As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!" "Do you see all these great buildings?" replied Jesus. "Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

So what?

3. Do we run after things that are 'great' in the world?
 - Gen 5:24 Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.
 - Is it enough to be like Enoch?
 - How does God see our actions that are insignificant to others?

4. When God is the most important in our hearts, is it for His good or for our good?
 - Isaiah 55:2 Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good, and you will delight in the richest of fare. 3 Give ear and come to me; listen, that you may live.
 - John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

5. God will help us give more of our hearts to Him
 - Romans 8:26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans.
 - At times, God will shake our lives to help us to see the condition of our hearts

Group Discussion:

1. Is it important for Christians to be successful in life?
2. What is God's definition of a successful Christian? How is it different from the world's definition?
3. Share about a time when God 'shook' your life. Do you feel God taught you something about life during that time?
