6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.
5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another.

Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

Your God shall be my God, Your people my people

Introduction

The most vital things in life are often the very things no one ever teaches us.

Why is it that matters of eternal weight remain unlearned among us?

The Bible is not merely a religious book;

it is God's instruction manual for human life.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.(2 Timothy 3:16-17, KJV)

Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehemjudah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehemjudah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.(Ruth 1:1-2, KJV)

The Hebrew meaning of Elimelech is: My God is King.

The Choices of a Husband and Father in Times of Hardship

1. He walked by the sight of circumstances, instead of walking by faith and looking unto God.
2. He pursued temporary comfort, and led his family away from God's promised land.
3. He left no spiritual blessing to the next generation. His own spiritual weakness and decline were even reflected in his sons' names:
Mahlon means frail and sickly; Chilion means wasted and consumed.

The Choices of a Wife and Mother in Times of Hardship

1. First stage: She passively followed her husband's wrong decisions, borne along by circumstances with no choice of her own.
2. Second stage: After her husband's failure, she took charge of the family, yet still became conformed to the worldly ways of Moab.
Layer by layer, everything was taken away:
trust in people faded, security in surroundings vanished,
confidence in material things was stripped away.
Until only God remained — the one and only refuge.
3. Third stage: She made the choice to turn back, to return to the land of promise, and to come back to the principles of God's truth.

The Book of Ruth shows us clearly:

Away from God's grace, away from a reverent heart, away from the boundaries of truth, every person will easily go astray.

In every family today, let us not merely blame circumstances or others.

Each one has our own weaknesses, our own blind spots, and areas where we need to repent. God can bring forth a new way even out of brokenness, and bring spiritual turnaround into our lives and families.

Warnings for every wife and mother

1. Do not live with superficial faith and an unfounded heart. Beware of being like the seed sown upon stony ground: warm in peaceful days, yet falling away immediately when trials come. Root your faith deep within your heart, and walk according to God's principles in all things.

Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

(Matthew 13:5-6, KJV)

1. Do not place your security in husbands, children, wealth or surroundings. Let the LORD alone be your trust, your satisfaction, and your refuge.

2. In the face of marital difficulties and family trials, do not pity yourself, do not complain, and do not run away. Humbly receive God's shaping work, knowing that behind every hardship lies God's good purpose.

The Godly Character of Ruth

1. A life that responds to love — a cross-centered following, a life willing to glean in humility (Ruth 1:22)

2. A life that submits to God-ordained authority (Ruth 2:2 / Ruth 3:5, KJV)

Conclusion

Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God: Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me. (Ruth 1:16-17, KJV)

These words are not merely Ruth's wholehearted loyalty to Naomi; they are Ruth's complete devotion to Naomi's God — the LORD God Himself.

This faithful confession stands as the peak of Ruth's faith:

Thy God shall be my God.

If anyone today possesses a faith as loyal to the Lord as Ruth had,

The LORD will surely watch over, bless, and honor them according to His own faithfulness and unfailing love.
