6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.
5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another.

Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

He does not Break, He does not Extinguish

Sis. Yuki Wong

Introduction:

Heaven is filling with earth's broken lives, and there is no bruised reed that Christ cannot take and restore to glorious blessedness and beauty. He can take the life crushed by pain or sorrow — and make it into a harp whose music shall be all praise. He can lift earth's saddest failure up to Heaven's glory. -- Miller (J.R. Miller)

I. Jesus neither breaks nor extinguishes

Isaiah 42:3 A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice.

A bruise reed, He does not break

- all kinds of afflictions, sins, or weaknesses, spiritually weary, are like people who are as fragile as a broken reed.
- Bruised reeds are often considered useless, and people will break them.
- Jesus did not break the bruised reed, but instead supported and healed its wounds, restoring its vitality.

The woman with the issue of blood (Mark 5:25-34)

The woman caught in adultery (John 8:1-11)

The Samaritan (John 4:1-30)

Zacchaeus the tax collector (Luke 19:1-10)

A smoldering wick he will not snuff out

- It extreme weakness, lack of motivation and confidence.
- The flame was weak, producing almost no light, and the wick could be blown out at any moment. People usually blew it out.
- Jesus does not extinguish a dying flame but instead rekindles and reignites it with the Holy Spirit.

Elijah sought death (1 Kings 19)

Peter denied the Lord three times (John 21:15-19)

II. How can a bruised reed and the smothering wick be saved?

King David cried out to the Lord in his anguish (Psalm 38, Psalm 51)

Psalm 38:15 Lord, I wait for you; you will answer, Lord my God.

Psalm 51:1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

III. Jesus' compassionate heart

Luke 1:78-79 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace.”

Matthew 11:28 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Conclusion:

- We are all bruised reeds and smoldering wicks, yet Jesus has not abandoned us.
- When we see bruised reeds and smoldering wicks around us, let us imitate Jesus and not break or extinguish them, but bring them to Jesus who has mercy on us and heals us.
