6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.
5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another.

Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

If There Is No Fruit, Should We Continue?

Isaiah 6:1–13

This Week's Sunday Message · Small Group Sharing & Discussion

◆ Brief Message Recap

Today's message invites us to reflect on a real and challenging question:

If there is no visible fruit, should we continue?

In the year that King Uzziah died, Isaiah saw the Lord seated on a high and exalted throne. The earthly king was gone, but the heavenly King still reigned. The seraphim called to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.”

When Isaiah saw the holy God, he did not first focus on the problems of the people, but on his own uncleanness:

“Woe to me! I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips.”

After God cleansed Isaiah, He commissioned him, saying, “Go.” But this calling would not be easy. God told him that the people would hear but not understand, see but not perceive, because they had continually rejected God and their hearts had become hardened.

Isaiah asked: “Lord, how long?”

God's answer was severe: until the cities lay ruined and the land became desolate. In other words, Isaiah was sent to serve without any guarantee of immediate results.

This challenges today's culture of success. We often measure ministry by numbers, responses, applause, growth, and achievements. But what God values more is faithfulness.

What sustains a servant of God is not visible results, but a vision of the Lord who sits upon the throne.

Today, let us share together:

- What did we hear?
 - What touched our hearts?
 - How will we respond?

1. Head | What Did I Hear?

Guiding Question:

Which verse or image from today's message left the deepest impression on you?

Possible Areas for Reflection (Optional):

- King Uzziah died, but God still sat on the throne.
- Isaiah's ministry began with “seeing the Lord.”
- God sent Isaiah to minister to a people with hardened hearts.
- The culture of success values results; the culture of faithfulness values obedience.
- True security is found not in ministry achievements, but in the Lord who reigns.

A Question Worth Considering:

If God calls us to remain faithful, even when there are no obvious results, are we still willing to continue?

2. Heart | What Touched Me?

Guiding Question:

Do I often use “results” to measure myself, my ministry, or even whether God is present?

Possible Sharing Points:

- Have I recently become discouraged because I could not see fruit?
- Is my sense of security built more on achievements or on the Lord?
- Have I placed success before Christ?
- Do I seek to see the Lord first before looking at ministry and circumstances?
- Could God be using a season of unseen results to shape my faithfulness?

Group Leader Emphasis:

Isaiah's ministry did not begin with "I saw results," but with "I saw the Lord."

If we focus only on results, discouragement comes easily. But when we see that the Lord still sits on the throne, we regain security and direction.

3. Hand | How Am I Willing to Respond?

Guiding Question:

What area of my life or ministry lacks visible results, yet where I can choose to remain faithful this week?

Practical Examples:

- Continue praying for someone who has not responded for a long time.
- Stop measuring ministry solely by attendance or responses.
- Rebuild my sense of security on God rather than achievements.
- Commit to deeper shepherding and discipleship.
- Ask God to cleanse my lips, motives, and attitude in serving.

A Simple Action Step:

"This week, I will remain faithful in one area where I do not see obvious results, and I will not let results define my value."

Group Leader Closing

Today's message asks us: If there is no fruit, should we continue?

Isaiah's answer was not based on whether the people would respond. It was based on seeing the Lord seated on the throne. King Uzziah had died, and earthly security had been shaken, but the King of Heaven still reigned.

God did not give Isaiah an easy assignment. He told Isaiah that the people would hear but not understand, see but not perceive. This was not because God's word lacked power, but because the people had repeatedly rejected God and their hearts had become hardened.

Therefore, Isaiah's ministry was not built upon immediate results. It was built upon God's call and God's sovereignty.

Today, we too must move from a culture of success to a culture of faithfulness. God is not looking for impressive report cards, but faithful servants; not superficial excitement, but deep shepherding and discipleship; not security based on results, but security based on the Lord who sits on the throne.

May we not only ask, "Is there fruit?" but also, "Am I faithful?"

Closing Prayer

Lord, help me to see You before I see my ministry; to be faithful to You before looking for results. Even when there is no visible fruit, I am still willing to continue faithfully.
