How Parents Face Educational Challenges?

The digital realm has blurred interpersonal boundaries, contributing to an ever-increasing sense of anxiety among children today. As we transition from the post-pandemic era into the age of AI, and as we navigate a world defined by complex and rapid change, how should parents adjust their approach to raising their children?

6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.
5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another.

Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

Our ACTS Program empowers underprivileged children to grow mentally, emotionally, and socially. Through the program, they learn essential life values, build meaningful friendships, develop confidence, and receive guidance that equips them for a hopeful future and greater academic success.

Currently, we support 95 students across five classes each day, conducted before or after their public school hours. Your sponsorship makes a meaningful difference by helping us provide transformative programs, dedicated mentors, and a safe and caring environment where every child is valued, encouraged, and given the opportunity to reach their full potential.

Holy Communion

24th October 2026 | Full Gospel Church JB | Sister Huai Teng

Introduction

Holy Communion, also known as the Lord's Supper, is a sacred observance of the Christian faith that has been practised for two thousand years since it was instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ. Why do we continue to observe Holy Communion regularly during worship services? Whenever you eat the bread and drink the cup of the Lord, what do you feel in your heart? Do you understand the spiritual significance of Holy Communion?

1 The Institution of Holy Communion

- Christianity has two ordinances: Baptism and Holy Communion. Both were instituted personally by our Lord Jesus Christ.
- Jesus commanded His followers to practise these two ordinances, and both carry rich spiritual significance.

1.1 Biblical References to Holy Communion

(Matthew 26:26–30; Mark 14:22–26; Luke 22:19–20; 1 Corinthians 11:23–26)

- Holy Communion was instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and is recorded in all three Synoptic Gospels.
- Other important biblical passages concerning Holy Communion include Paul's teachings in 1 Corinthians 11:17–34 and 1 Corinthians 10:16–17.

1.2 What Does Holy Communion Consist Of?

Holy Communion consists of unleavened bread and a cup containing grape juice or wine.

- The bread represents the sinless body of Lord Jesus Christ, which He gave up for us on the cross.
- The wine or grape juice in the cup represents the precious blood of Lord Jesus Christ, shed for the sins of the world.
- The cup represents the covenant Jesus established with us through His own blood.
- The covenant is the New Covenant foretold by prophet Jeremiah (Jeremiah 31:31–34).
- Eating and drinking symbolise fellowship, communion and union between believers and our Lord Jesus Christ, as well as fellowship among believers.

2 The Significance of Holy Communion

2.1 Relationship Between Holy Communion and Passover

- The first Passover took place in Egypt (Exodus 12). At that time, God brought ten plagues upon Egypt to deliver the Israelites from slavery under the Egyptians. The tenth plague was the death of the firstborn.

- When the Israelites ate the Passover meal, they became participants in the redemptive history of the Exodus. They shared in God's act of redemption for their forefathers, through which they were delivered from slavery in Egypt and became God's people.
- Likewise, when we observe Holy Communion, we bring before us the redemptive event accomplished by Jesus on the cross.
- When we eat the bread and drink from the cup of the Lord, we enter into the significance of the redemptive event accomplished by Jesus through His death on the cross two thousand years ago. We participate in and share in the New Covenant established by the blood of Lord Jesus Christ. We are a people redeemed by the blood of Jesus.

The entire sacrificial system and the observance of festivals in the Old Testament pointed forward to Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 5:7 NIV Get rid of the old yeast, so that you may be a new unleavened batch—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

- During the Last Supper, Jesus, as the host of the meal, gave the Passover meal a new meaning by instituting Holy Communion.
- The Passover commemorated God's deliverance of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. The Lord's Supper, or Holy Communion, commemorates Lord Jesus Christ's redemption of us from the dominion and bondage of sin.

2.2 The Blood of Jesus Guarantees the New Covenant

(Jeremiah 31:31, 33–34)

- The New Covenant was established through the blood of Jesus—the blood of the Son of the living God, Jesus the Messiah and Redeemer. His blood serves as the guarantee and seal of the covenant.
- The blood of Jesus ensures that all the blessings and promises of the New Covenant will certainly be fulfilled.
- Jesus gives us the “cup of salvation”, yet He alone bore the “cup of God's wrath” on the cross. He offered His own life as a ransom for many.

2.3 The Meaning of Holy Communion

Holy Communion reminds us of several important truths:

- Remembering the redemptive work of Jesus on the cross and His grace in forgiving our sins.
- Remembering the New Covenant established through the precious blood of Lord Jesus.
- Proclaiming the Lord's death until He comes.
- Sharing in the body of Christ and being united with the Lord.
- Being united with other members of the Body of Christ, the Church.
- Looking forward with hope to the Kingdom of God and awaiting the return of Christ.

3 The Practice of Holy Communion

3.1 How Often Should We Observe Holy Communion?

- The phrase “Do this” in 1 Corinthians 11:24 is understood as an instruction to continue observing Holy Communion.
- Different churches practise Holy Communion at different frequencies. In our church, we observe Holy Communion every two weeks, on the first and third weeks of the month.

3.2 Who Should Participate in Holy Communion?

Who may partake in Holy Communion?

- Those who partake in Holy Communion are people redeemed by the precious blood of Lord Jesus. Therefore, they should be people who acknowledge their sins, repent and believe in Him (Mark 16:16).
- Those who partake in Holy Communion share in the body of Christ. There is one bread and one body. Therefore, participants should be those who have been baptised into the Body of Christ (1 Corinthians 10:16–17).

Who may preside over Holy Communion?

- The Bible does not explicitly state that only pastors may preside over Holy Communion. Different churches have different practices. In our church, Holy Communion is led by pastoral staff and spiritual leaders (Acts 2:42, 46; John 21:15–19).

Can those who have sinned or are experiencing spiritual weakness receive Holy Communion?

- Is Holy Communion meant for saints or sinners?
- We are justified by faith, not by observing the law. More importantly, do we have a repentant heart?
- (Mark 2:17; Psalm 51:17; 1 John 1:9; Psalm 130:3–4)

3.3 Right Attitude Towards Holy Communion

1 Corinthians 11:27–29 NIV So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. Everyone ought to examine themselves before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup. For those who eat and drink without discerning the body of Christ eat and drink judgment on themselves.

When participating in Holy Communion, we should have the following attitudes:

- A heart of reverence and gratitude: Remembering the Lord and responding to His love.
- A heart of surrender: Submitting ourselves to the Lord.
- A repentant heart: Examining ourselves and turning away from sin.
- A commitment to unity: Remembering our union with the Lord and our unity with other members of His Body.
- A heart that honours the sacredness of Holy Communion: Never treating the bread and cup as ordinary things or using them as mere tools.
- A heart of hope and expectation: Looking forward to the Lord's return and the fulfilment of God's Kingdom.

Home Group Discussion Questions:

1. Has this message helped you better understand what Holy Communion is, its significance, and how it should be practised?
2. Whenever you eat the bread and drink the cup of the Lord, what do you feel in your heart?
3. How can you respond practically to the truths of Holy Communion in your daily life and within your community of faith?

HOLY COMMUNION: DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME

- 1) Story of the Crimson Worm.
Psalms 22:6
- 2) The Cross is the ultimate demonstration of God's love for us. The greatest act of love was when Jesus laid down His life for us on the Cross.
1 John 4:10, Romans 5:8
- 3) Communion is partaking the bread and cup in remembrance of Jesus and what He had done for us on the Cross. Jesus relates the breaking of bread to the breaking of His body so that our bodies can be made whole. The shedding of His blood is so that our sins can be forgiven and we can stand righteous before God. We must discern that the bread and cup is the body of Christ.
1 Corinthians 11:29,30
- 4) Communion is for us, for our benefit. It is not a tradition or ritual to keep in our calendar. It is not just remembering the death of Jesus on the Cross but reaping the blessings and benefits flowing from His death. Jesus paid the price, we receive the blessings when we exercise the divine exchange.
Isaiah 53:4,5
- 5) The Cross is not a defeat for God but a devastating defeat to Satan. Jesus' death on the Cross revealed His love, His resurrection sealed His power and victory over all His enemies. In Communion, Jesus shares all the benefits of the victory with us so that we can live a victorious life in Him.
Ephesians 1:3
- 6) To carry the Cross in our hearts is to remember the Cross, to remember Jesus' love and victory on the Cross with faith and confidence, and exercise the benefits of the Cross anytime and anywhere.

QUESTIONS

- 1) What is the purpose of having Holy Communion?
- 2) What should our attitude be when partaking the Holy Communion?
