6. Beware of cults/heretics

Recently, we know that cults/heretics organizations have infiltrated the church and frequently invited brothers and sisters to participate in their activities. Meanwhile, we also observed their following practices and reactions:

1. Recruit believers to participate in various Bible courses through various means of making friends and chatting on social media.
2. When asking the other party about their basic Christian beliefs, they may appear mysterious and unwilling to listen or respond.
3. Visit new friends in the church, show exceptional enthusiasm, ask for contact information from members, but remain mysterious, constantly lobbying members to participate in Bible classes or other gatherings.
4. Recently, there have also been cases of two or a group of people going door-to-door to report good news.5. Besides, their methods will continue to evolve one after another. Therefore, we call on our church brothers and sisters to be cautious and avoid entering into cults/heretical groups. If you encounter any of the above situations and need assistance, please inform your cell group leader/parents or contact the church's pastoral staff.

The Books of Jonah and Nahum

Introduction:

1. The books of Jonah and Nahum are named after these two prophets.
2. Among them, Prophet Nahum had a contemporaneous counterpart who was more widely known—Prophet Jonah.
3. Their backgrounds are quite similar, and there are many commonalities between them.
4. Jonah was born in Nazareth and was considered a hero by the locals. Among all the prophets, Jesus only compared Himself to Jonah.
5. Prophet Nahum, on the other hand, came from Capernaum. The name "Capernaum" comes from the Hebrew word "Caper," meaning "village," so "Capernaum" means "Nahum's Village," named after Prophet Nahum.
6. Capernaum was also the base of Jesus' ministry around the Sea of Galilee.
7. Both prophets came from the northern region of Israel, an area frequently interacting with other nations, and thus referred to as "Galilee of the Nations."
8. Galilee was situated at a crossroads of the world.
9. This crossroads connected Asia to Africa and Europe to Arabia.
10. At this crossroads lies a small hill called Mount Megiddo. The Hebrew name for it is "Har-Magedon" (Armageddon), the prophesied site of the final battle in the Book of Revelation.

I. Jonah and Nahum as Prophets of the Northern Tribes

1. Both prophets were familiar with international affairs and were sent by God to Assyria.
2. During the times of Jonah and Nahum, Assyria posed a significant external threat.
   - Jonah was sent to Nineveh, the Assyrian capital, around 770 BC.
   - Nahum was sent approximately 150 years later.
3. The mission of both prophets was due to the rampant wickedness of the Assyrians.

II. Jonah's Mission to Nineveh

1. Assyria as Israel's Mortal Enemy
   - Jonah, instead of obeying, fled in the opposite direction to Tarshish.
2. Was Jonah Dead or Alive?
   - A close reading of Jonah chapter 2 reveals the surprising discovery that Jonah was actually dead.
3. Evidence of Jonah's Death
   - I believe Jonah is the best example of resurrection in the Old Testament.
4. Jonah walked out from the belly of the fish and reached the city of Nineveh.
5. Why did Jonah run away from God's Call?

- 5.1 We need to go back to 2 Kings 14:23-25 to see what Jonah encountered in Israel
- But the message God gave to Jonah was unexpected.
  God said, 'Go and tell this king that God is going to bless him, expand his territory, and make him a great nation.
  Jonah protested, saying, 'He is an evil king; God should not bless him.
- "If he is blessed, he might become even worse.
- 5.2 Thus, this past event influenced his attitude. He believed that if God let them off the hook, they would not turn from their evil ways:
- 5.3 Jonah was actually upset about God's character and reputation. He couldn't tolerate people taking advantage of God's mercy and exploiting His compassion:
- 5.4 He believed that the repentance of the Assyrians was merely superficial and would not last.
- 5.5 He thought that if God were too lenient toward them, they would believe that God would not judge them, and they would also doubt and mock his warnings.
- 5.6 He doesn't understand that God gives opportunities. Sometimes, we also forget how patient God is and forget that He wants to give people another chance.
- 5.7 Of course, God's patience has its limits, but He will not be patient forever.

III. 150 Years After Jonah: Assyria's Relapse

1. Assyria Resumes Expansion
2. After Jonah, there were two more prophets who delivered messages to Assyria.
- The first prophet was Zephaniah, who prophesied that God would punish Assyria and make it a desolate wasteland.
3. Nineveh's Doom
- Once God's wrath reaches its peak, it becomes unstoppable.
- Assyria's punishment came because of the empire's inhumanity, showcasing God's justice.

Conclusion:

- God controls nature and governs all of history.
- It is God who raises kings and deposes them.
- God's sovereignty over history makes it predictable.
- One major role of prophets is to record history before it happens.
- Nahum's prophecy of Nineveh's destruction seemed implausible when delivered, as Assyria was at the height of its power.
- Today, Nineveh lies in ruins—a desolate desert, with no trace of its once-magnificent palaces.
